

2011 Drivers' Choice Award Winners

Best of the Year ▪ Chevrolet Volt

"Both revolutionary and uncompromising; the family car has entered a new era with the Volt."

Best Small Car ▪ Volkswagen Jetta

"The handsomely styled Jetta also exudes a bigger, more upscale personality."

Best Family Sedan ▪ Hyundai Sonata

"The new Sonata fills out its winning hand with a premium look rivals can't touch."

Best Sport Sedan ▪ BMW 5-Series

"With equal parts thrill and finesse, the BMW 5-Series packs a powerful punch."

Best Luxury Sedan ▪ Infiniti M

"With sleeker design language, the M-Series gives up nothing to its more expensive rivals."

Best Convertible ▪ Mercedes-Benz E-Class Cabriolet

"The benchmark for luxury convertibles just went up again with the E-Class Cabriolet."

Best Small Utility ▪ Chevrolet Equinox

"The Equinox is the new benchmark for compact utilities."

Best Large Utility ▪ Jeep Grand Cherokee (two winners)

"The Jeep Grand Cherokee does everything you want an affordable, go anywhere luxury utility to do."

Dodge Durango

"Brings the traditional SUV into fuel sensitive times, while maintaining 7 passenger seating and great towing capabilities."

Best Pickup Truck ▪ Ford F-Series

"The F-Series delivers fuel economy without giving up any of its work ethic."

Best Minivan ▪ Honda Odyssey

"The Odyssey offers unrivaled style, convenience and economy."

Best Sport Coupe ▪ Cadillac CTS Coupe

"The Cadillac CTS Coupe not only hits its mark, it blasts right through it."

Best Performance Car ▪ Ford Mustang GT

"The Mustang GT is the total performance package – at an affordable price."

Best Eco-Friendly ▪ Chevrolet Volt

"A stylish, technology-packed, practical 5-door poised to lead America into the clean driving future."

Best Dream Machine ▪ Audi R8 Spyder (three winners)

"The R8 Spyder delivers street and track performance that is virtually flawless."

Alfa Romeo 8C Spider

"Its performance will knock your socks off, while its sultry styling will make you blush."

Bentley Continental Supersports Convertible

"A sun chaser like no other, with luxurious appointments that go to extremes."