

2012 Drivers' Choice Award Winners

Best of the Year ▪ Ford Mustang Boss 302

"As a total package, the Ford Mustang Boss 302 just does everything right."

Best Subcompact Car ▪ Kia Rio (two winners)

"The Kia Rio stands out with handsome styling, athletic ride-and-handling, and a reasonable price."

Hyundai Accent

"The Hyundai Accent delivers a one-two punch with slick styling and an upscale interior."

Best Compact Car ▪ Subaru Impreza

"No other compact comes close to its mix of standard AWD, upscale interior, and near bargain pricing."

Best Family Sedan ▪ Hyundai Sonata (two winners)

"With its stunning design, 4-cylinder and hybrid engines, and extensive warranties, the Sonata is a repeat winner"

Kia Optima

"As much as we love the exterior design of the Optima, we love the modern, ergonomically smart interior even more."

Best Sport Sedan ▪ Volkswagen Jetta GLI

"Packing a new independent rear suspension, the GLI is about as entertaining as a front-wheel drive, four-door can be, all for under $25,000."

Best Luxury Sedan ▪ Infiniti M

"Infiniti has gone and made the M even better by adding a full hybrid model. Never before has cruising at 60 in electric-only mode been so enjoyable."

Best Convertible ▪ Chevrolet Camaro Convertible

"A great blend of fine style, acceleration and economy."

Best Small Utility ▪ Mazda CX-5

"A compact crossover that's as practical to own as it is stunning to look at - the CX-5 is a real winner."

Best Large Utility ▪ Jeep Grand Cherokee (two winners)

"The Jeep Grand Cherokee offers just about everything a 5-member family will ever need."

Dodge Durango

"Durango delivers long distance room for seven, and can be equipped with a Hemi V8 so big-toys up to 7,400 pounds can be part of the adventure."

Best Pickup Truck ▪ Ford F-150

"Ford made us all believers that a V6 can be a standard bearer in the full-size truck ranks."

Best Minivan ▪ Honda Odyssey

"There's a lot to love about the Honda Odyssey, including an extra smooth ride, Accord-like handling, cavernous cabin, and of course its class leading 28-MPG highway rating."

Best Sport Coupe ▪ Cadillac CTS Coupe

“The CTS Coupe outshines its competition when it comes to style, comfort, and performance.”

Best Performance Car ▪ Ford Mustang Boss 302

“From the nostalgic-yet-modern styling, to the 444-horsepower 5-point-0 under the hood, the Mustang Boss 302 is everything you want in a performance car.”

Best Eco-Friendly ▪ Toyota Prius Family

“A lot of hybrids have been launched in recent years, but no one does it better than the Toyota Prius family.”

Best Dream Machine ▪ Ferrari 458 Italia (three winners)

“Just when we thought a Ferrari couldn’t be more enticing, the 458 Italia came along and stole the show.”

Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG

“The Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG may look like a throwback, but it’s one that also throws you back in your seat.”

Porsche 911

“The all-new 911 takes the venerable sport coupe to a whole new level, one that most other manufacturers can only dream about.”
